

A.I.R.: Attitudes In Reverse™

*Just because you do not see it, doesn't mean it isn't there.
It is all around us.*

May 6, 2010 is National Children's Mental Health Awareness Day

Wear your shirt.
Start a conversation.
Reverse an Attitude.
Save a Life!

1 in 4 persons suffer from some sort of mental health issue. This startling number includes youth. Most symptoms start early, but go unrecognized or are chalked up to childhood/teenage angst. This can delay early intervention, draw criticism from society, and sometimes result in devastating consequences.

Wear it -May 6th- National Children's Mental Health Awareness Day.

Wear it -May 22nd- At the Statewide NAMI Walk in Washington Crossing Park, NJ.

Wear it all year long!

We're hoping youth and adults alike will start asking what "A.I.R. Attitudes In Reverse™" means and thereby open the door to MUCH needed conversation.
